Many Hear Address by Mrs. Parry on Care of the Voice

An unusually large number of members of the music department of the Rock Island Woman's club attended the meeting held Tuesday afternoon at the Masonic temple, when Mrs. Marie Berberich Parry of Chicago spoke on "The Care of the Voice." Mrs. Parry was introduced by Mrs. H. H. Cleveland who had been a classmate of hers at Knox college. The address was greatly enjoyed and proved very instructive. Mrs. Parry traced the qualities of the child's voice from babyhood on to maturity. She advised that the child's voice should not be suppressed, but that the qualities should be studied and as they appear they should be cultivated. Her system is that the child is the sounding board and that the voice should be cultivated from this point of view. Mrs. A. D. Huesing, Jr., was the leader for the afternoon.

Miss Ruth West, who was to have opened the program with a group of two songs, was unable to give her numbers yesterday, and the program included a reading by Miss Francis Medill, vocal numbers by Miss Bessie Riess accompanied by Mrs. Robert T. Lee, and numbers by Miss Marjorie Salapiano numbers by Miss Elizabeth Barbour and violin numbers by the Misses Anna Marie VanDuzer and Orono Apple accompanied by Miss Thyra Soderberg.

The nominating committee made its report yesterday, and it was decided to hold the election in June. Following are the officers suggested: Chairman—Mrs. S. J. Nyquist. Vice president—Mrs. William Ulmeyer. Secretary—Mrs. William R. Astor. Treasurer—Mrs. LaVerne Hinds. Registrar—Mrs. W. W. Kittelsen. Doorkeeper—Mrs. Arthur J. Bullock.

Refreshments were served after the meeting by the hospitality committee, chairmaned by Mrs. H. W. Tremann.

Pretty Party for Bride-Elect.
The Misses Elizabeth Niemires and Zella Edwards entertained at the former's home, 1413 Fortieth street at a very beautiful party for Miss Flossie M. McCleary, whose marriage to George Ellis is to be an event of early May. The affair was in the form of a miscellaneous shower and the bride-to-be received many lovely gifts for her new home. The guests were 14 friends from the paymaster's department at the Rock Island arsenal.

Decorations throughout the rooms were in orchid and pink, the chosen bridal colors, and the tables in the two shades being cleverly arranged to make a very beautiful effect. There were three tables of 500 played during the evening, the prizes being awarded to Miss Elsie Frye, first; Miss Monica Haurigan, second, and Miss Hazel Engstrom consolation.

Program for Orchestra Concert.
Everyone interested will have a chance to have favorite numbers played at the children's festival to be given for Rock Island people at the Augustana college gymnasium on the afternoon of May 19 at 3:30. A list of numbers played at the winter concert series has been prepared and those wishing any special composition to be played should cut out the appended list, mark it and mail to J. A. Schmidt, secretary of the association at 111 West Third street, Davenport.

Phoenix will take place Saturday morning at 10:30 at the home of the bride's parents, 1521 Perry street, Davenport.

Reports at Quarterly Conference.
Reports were read by the officers of the church and those of all the societies of the church at the quarterly conference held in the Spencer Memorial Methodist church Tuesday evening. The activities of the church were discussed, and the reports of various committees showed a marked gain over those of the last conference. Rev. J. T. Jones, the district superintendent, was in charge of the meeting.

Entertains at Luncheon.
Mrs. Phil Mitchell entertained informally today at a 1 o'clock luncheon for a few friends. Bowls of spring flowers were used on the tables. The affair was delightfully informal and the afternoon hours spent socially.

work best suited to his or her ability and inclination is taught. A large percentage of the patients, especially those of the dementia praecox type, are permanently cured after doing the occupational work.

Mrs. Slagle told an interesting story of one patient at the hospital at Elgin, Ill., who, because of her weakened mental condition, had voluntarily held her hands clenched and became mute, for a period of over two years. Her interest in weaving rugs was aroused and after a course of training, she was dismissed from the hospital and now holds a reasonable position and is earning $25 a week in a rug factory.

Miss Shanklin is planning on having a visitors' day at the hospital, so that tri-city persons can see the work that the patients are doing in the occupational therapy department. The day this is to be held will be announced later. Incidentally, she can make use of all kinds of silk scraps and old silk hose, if Rock Island women will see that she is notified as to where they can be secured.

Coffee Thursday Afternoon.
The women's guild of the South Park Presbyterian church will hold a coffee Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ed Geer, 1620 Twenty-fourth-and-a-half street, at 2:30.

Campfire Girls Elect.
The first meeting of the group of campfire girls of the Spencer Memorial Methodist church was held Tuesday evening at the church, when officers for the year were elected. Miss Mattie Ehn was chosen president, Miss Blanche Williams vice president, Miss Agnes Buel treasurer, and Miss Alta Mapel secretary. The dues for the organization were set and it was decided to hold the meetings every two weeks. After the business session there was a social hour and refreshments.

Shower for Miss Swanson.
Miss Florence Swanson of 3900 Eighth avenue, who is to marry Vincent Bergen of Galesburg during the summer, was the honoree at a pretty prenuptial miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Sophia Esbjorn, Miss Lota Esbjorn, Miss Esther Barquist and Miss Sigrid Anderson at the Esbjorn home, 618 Thirty-ninth street, Tuesday evening. The guests included 14 girl friends of the bride-elect.

The rooms were effectively decorated in yellow and white, the colors which Miss Swanson has chosen as her bridal colors. Crepe paper streamers and jonquils were very prettily used. Music and games were played and just before the luncheon was served, Miss Swanson was presented with a yellow umbrella filled to overflowing with articles for her new home. The color scheme was carried out in the lunch. There will be other affairs in the young lady's honor before her marriage.

Club of '89.
Mrs. E. B. Hayward entertained the club of '89 at her home, 902 Bridge avenue, Davenport, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. William Kimball and Mrs. R. Atkinson of Pasadena, Cal., who are visiting Mrs. S. D. Bawden, were special guests of the afternoon. Mrs. Hayward read a paper on the life of Mary Lachbarr.

Mrs. Hayward was a pupil of the poet and had a great many interesting incidents to tell of her life. She also read several of her poems. Mrs. W. F. Holbrook read an article from a recent magazine on "Making Over America." The meeting of May 11 will be with Mrs. F. J. Sessions, 2432 Scott street. This will be the last meeting of the year and will be a social session.

Meet With Miss Witt.
The members of the Kate Hill Missionary society of the First United Presbyterian church were entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Edith Witt, 1223 Twenty-fifth avenue, a large number of the members being in attendance. The program was led by the president, Miss Mildred Warknack, several of the members taking part, and at the business meeting it was decided to prepare a newspaper for the next meeting in two weeks, each of the young women to have charge of the articles for a different department. Plans for a magazine social were discussed, and following the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Gibson-Rosenbaum Wedding.
Miss Emma Rosenbaum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Rosenbaum, 1517 Forty-second street, became the bride of Roy Gibson, son of J. W. Have Dance at Club.
A very enjoyable dancing party was given Tuesday evening at the Rock Island club by a group of friends for Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bassett. Bowly's orchestra furnished the music for dancing, and bridge was played at several tables during the evening hours. During the intermission, a delicious luncheon was served in the downstairs dining room, at the conclusion of which a large ivory basket of Russet roses and cherry blossoms with a fluffy tulle bow on the handle of the basket, was presented to Mrs. Bassett. T. A. Murphy's presentation speech was a clever bit of oratory. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Will Gault and daughter, Miss Jane, of Sterling, Ill.

Second Party of Series.
Mrs. S. E. Benson, 4406 Seventh avenue, entertained Monday afternoon at a party, this being the second of a series she is giving. There were 20 guests present and the hours were spent informally with music and general sociability. A three course lunch was served in the dining room where vases of pink roses were used for decoration.

Entertain Between Acts.
Miss Helen Moore will give a reading, Miss Dorothy Foster will sing and Miss Beryl Williams will give piano numbers between the acts of "The Mascot," the 3-act comedy to be presented Thursday evening at the Broadway Presbyterian church by Miss Charlotte Huesing's class of boys. The play is to start at 7:30 and will be given in the Sunday school rooms.

Mile-a-Minute Club Entertained.
Members of the Mile-a-Minute club were entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Bohn, 552 Seventeenth avenue, Moline. A social time was enjoyed while the ladies were busy with their fancywork. The hostess served a three-course lunch late in the afternoon. The club will meet in two weeks.

Baker-Guy Wedding.
Tri-city friends will be interested in the announcement of the marriage of Miss Margaret Guy, formerly of Moline and now of Las Cruces, N. M., to Roy Sumner Baker, a business man of that place, which took place Saturday morning at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. David L. Jones, formerly Miss Hallie Guy, Mr. and Mrs. Baker are taking a motor trip and will be at home in Las Cruces after June 1. The bride is the youngest daughter of C. W. Guy. She is a sister of Mrs. George Watt of Moline.

Announce June Luncheon Committee.
Mrs. A. F. Sala, chairman of the music department of the Rock Island Woman's club, today announced the committee to arrange for the annual June luncheon, to be chairmaned by Mrs. J. J. Ulmeyer. The date for the affair will be announced later. Following are the women to work with Mrs. Ulmeyer in arranging for the social meeting of the year: Mrs. J. H. Liedtke, Miss Mildred Spencer, Mrs. C. L. Thompson, Mrs. W. H. Bedell, Mrs. Sam Switzer, Mrs. Edward Manhard, Mrs. Clyde Marshall, Mrs. Lynn Ewing, Mrs. E. E. Russell, Mrs. C. T. Foster and Mrs. William F. Barth.

Lady Elks Dance.
Members and friends are looking forward to the dancing party to be given Thursday evening at the Elks hall by the Lady Elks. White's orchestra has been engaged to play for the dancing. This is one of the series of parties sponsored by the ladies.

Shower for Bride-to-Be.
Mrs. W. T. Black and Miss Isabelle Black of 1803 Brady street, Davenport, entertained Tuesday evening at a miscellaneous shower for Miss Irene Zirkel, who is to become the bride of Harry Tonn, May 5, at a morning ceremony at St. Joseph's church in Davenport. Pink and blue decorations were used about the rooms, and a vase of carnations and roses was centerpiece for the table. Dinner was served the 12 guests at 7 o'clock, the place cards and favors being dainty novelties of the chosen colors. After the coursed dinner, games were enjoyed, prizes being won by Miss Mame and Miss Bessie Shields, and Miss Irene Zirkel.

Gibson-Rosenbaum Wedding.
Miss Emma Rosenbaum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Rosenbaum, 1517 Forty-second street, became the bride of Roy Gibson, son of J. W. Gibson of 420 West Fifth street, Davenport, Monday morning, Justice W. R. Maines officiating. There were no attendants. Mr. Gibson is employed in the Bettendorf shops. NEW BLOUSE AND SEPARATE SKIRT

BY ELOISE.

The separate skirt and blouse are leading all other styles for summer wear. At least, at present they are in the lead. Another month may find the one-piece frock back again, but even so the separate skirt and blouse will have a prominent place. The blouseette is really the newest thing if one would believe the shopkeepers. The blouse is old fashioned and a thing of yesterday or a minute ago, at any rate, but the blouseette is something new and oh, so very fashionable. The blouseette, in case you are bewildered by the term, is nothing more or less than the new blouse, which is short sleeved, low neck and to the waistline, and is worn outside the skirt, in fact it is so short that there is nothing to tuck in.

Here is the newest costume for summer wear, a blouseette of silk and a sports skirt also of silk. The blouseette is of plain blue material, but the skirt is oyster color with black design in two shades of blue, one dark and one light, to match the blouse. The skirt is a plain pleated model suitable for wear with many different blouses. The blouse is rather oriental in effect, for it is embroidered in wool in a novel Japanese like design and is trimmed with tassels which are always a hint of the far east. The costume as a whole is all that may be desired for cool summer wear.

secretary and will attend the sessions at Bushnell. It is not yet decided who will represent the Rock Island Woman's club. Neither of the delegates elected at the last meeting, Miss Ruth West and Mrs. W. J. Sweeney, will be able to attend. Mrs. F. H. First, probably will represent the Monday Study club. Mrs. A. F. Edwards, Mrs. D. A. Babcock, Mrs. C. C. Sloan and Mrs. Mary Ogden of Moline expect to attend the district meeting. Mrs. George E. Ockert of Roseville, Ill., is the district president.

Class to Give Play.
The proceeds from the play to be presented by the Golden Rule class of the First Methodist church, will go toward the support of the French war orphan, which the class is educating in a Protestant school in France. The play, which is called "Polly in Politics," will be given Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the Sunday school annex, and the cast of characters is as follows: Colonel Jasper Danvers, leader of the "old guard," Raymond Walker Joseph Pendexter, an "insurgent" James Vilas, a "regular" Harwood Herlocker Sammy, a bellboy, Richard Ramser Mrs. Danvers, the colonel's wife, Miss Marian Hubbard Polly Danvers, the colonel's daughter—Mrs. Faye Criss Wolf Cora Jones, a telephone girl, Miss Margaret Cook Marie, a parlor maid, Miss Dorothy Rhoads Act I—Parlor of the Imperial hotel at the state capital. The night of the governor's ball. The skirmish.

Act II—Telephone room at the Imperial. Ten o'clock next morning. The ambush.
Act III—Committee room at the state house. Ten thirty-five o'clock the same morning. The victory.
Time: The present. Place—The capital of a New England state.

Anderson-Brown Wedding Date Set.
May 1 has been set as the date for the marriage of Miss Sophia Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Brown of 512 Fourth avenue, and Lawrence V. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Anderson, 904 Forty-third street. The May day idea is to be carried out in the decorations at the wedding. The ceremony will be at the home of the bride's parents. Dainty May baskets will be used about the rooms, pink and white predominating. Rev. J. Ekholm will officiate. The bride's dress will be of white marquisette with the full length veil. She will carry an arm bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Her traveling suit will be dark blue tricot with a georgette hat to match.

Miss Amy Anderson, sister of the groom, will be bridesmaid and Julius Brown, brother of the bride, best man. After the ceremony there will be a wedding dinner for 25 relatives and friends. After a trip to Omaha, Neb., the couple will live at 1503 Twenty-fourth street. Mr. Anderson is a director in the Reserve Trust company.

To Have School of Instruction.
Local lodge No. 608, I. O. O. F., will have a school of instruction Thursday evening in the lodge rooms. The school will be conducted by some one from the head of file of either Chicago or Springfield. An invitation has been extended to Odd Fellows of Rock Island county and plans have been made for a record attendance at the meeting. Final preparations will be made at the meeting for the lodge's part in the American day parade, May 1.

Healey-Peterson Wedding.
Miss Adella O. Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Peterson of MacPherson, Kan., and Francis C. Healey of this city were married Tuesday evening. The bride has been employed in Bengston's drug store and is a niece of J. A. Bengston. Mr. and Mrs. Healey left for the home of the bride's parents, where they will visit for a few days. The home will be in Rock Island.

Mrs. Tucker on Program.
Mrs. Edna Tucker of the Y. W. C. A. is to be one of the speakers at the 21st annual meeting of the Illinois State Historical society, which convenes in Springfield Friday, May 14. Her paper will be on "Illinois First Entomologist, Benjamin D. Walsh." The sessions of the meet will be held at the state house. Several Rock Island people who are especially interested in historical work will go to the meeting.

Social Announcements.
The woman's missionary society of the Broadway Presbyterian church will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Frank Mixer, 734 Twentieth street. Arsenal lodge No. 1086, Mystic Workers of the World, will hold its regular meeting this evening at the Knights of Columbus hall. All the members are urged to attend.

Between Times Circle Meeting.
Mrs. H. M. Hallbach at her home, 1511 Twenty-seventh street, Moline, entertained members of the Between Times circle Tuesday evening. There were 22 members present, and at the short business meeting it was decided that the club as a whole would march in the America day parade May 1. The members spent the afternoon with their sewing and delicious refreshments were served. In two weeks the club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. C. B. Mitchell, 3161 Eighteenth street, East Moline.
